

Keep On Going

Words & Music: Inga Rumpf

She's walking down the road
In her pocket toothbrush and soap
She's waiting for somebody
Who gives her bread for love and sweet honey
No matter how it seems to be
She's a maid of sexuality

She keeps on
She keeps on walking
She keeps on walking down the road
So keep on going
Keep on going
Keep on going, for I don't mind

Everybody knows his name
'Cause everybody says: He's the king of game!
Lots of fools have tried his magic art
But they got mad before they started
So if you play with him
You'll fall with a prod!
So watch it, he's got eyes like a hawk!
