

Life Without Pain

Life without pain (I'm praying for a)
Life without shame (There must come a time)
Life makes you moving (Yes, I feel it)
Life can make you groovy

I've always had that feeling
That there was something wrong
I have been in much confusion
But all I can do is to sing this song

Trouble I saw when I travelled around
But I thought nothing could happen to me
But now I'm almost on the ground
Got even no place where I can be

I'm working hard but the smallest part
Of the money I earn is for me
When I see the crowd the saying is getting loud
We're all slaves of a minority
