

Nothing But Love

Words & Music: Rumpf/Müller/Bohn

I write you a letter
In the morning sun
To warm you up all day long

It sure would be better
To hear you on the phone
The feeling in your voice could turn me on

It was the right time when we met
And walked barefoot in the sand
The words we said were ringing like a chime
Slowly we made love and hand in hand
We touched the sky for the very first time

Just for love
I gave my love to you
Just for love
I gave it all to you

Wherever you are
Whatever you do
I hope you want me, too
Sure enough
I want nothing, nothing but love

It sure would be better
To see you at my door
Oh, babe, I miss you more and more

Why don't you come to me, yeah
We've got a story to write
Strong enough to show what it's all about
Oh, babe, I need your body by my side
Please, kiss my lips, I'm screaming too loud
