

Rock 'n' Roll Preacher

Words & Music: Frank Diez
Publisher: Intersong/Warner/Chappell
Sung by Inga Rumpf (Atlantis)

I'm a rock 'n' roll preacher
Riding 'cross the land
I'm a rock 'n' roll preacher
In a rock 'n' roll band
I'm playing the guitar
And I'm singing of the blues
And I know that I will never lose
I'm a rock 'n' roll preacher
Baby, just like you

I don't need no bible
I don't need no gown
I don't need no rosary
When I go to town
I only need a place
Where I can put my gear
And then I tell you loud so you can hear
I'm a rock 'n' roll preacher
With the heaven's sound

I'm a rock 'n' roll preacher
I've never been to church
But the people understand
I didn't need to search
I'm tuning my guitar
And when I start to play
Everybody knows that heaven's not so far away

I'm a rock 'n' roll preacher
'Cause that's the truth for me
