

Rough Enough

Words & Music: Randolph/Rumpf/Conti
Publisher: CPM

For the people in my street
I'm just innocent and sweet
That's a dangerous belief
For all those guys who're playing cheap

I don't want silk and pearls
I've never been one of those handy girls
Gimme leather and steel
'Cause I'm rough

Rough enough - fight fire with fire
You know I - never been no liar
Rough enough - my desire
Born to burn - I'll take you higher

I don't need no light of day
To sweep the dust of lies away
You get the itch - but I won't scratch it
Come my way or don't come back - oh yeah!
