

A Simple Song

Words & Music: Inga Rumpf

Publisher: Capriccio/Warner/Chappel

Listen to my simple song
Before you start to cry
Listen to my very soul
That's trying to take your time

'Cause sometimes in our little world
Things have taken the wrong place
Then sometimes in our little world
It hits you in your face

Watch yourself a little more
If trouble cares your mind
Just lean back and close the door
The silence will be kind

Leave the path you wanna go
It's not good when you're down
Listen to your inner voice
That tells you what it's all about

'Cause sometimes in our little world
Things have taken the wrong place
Then sometimes in our little world
It hits you in your face
