

Floating

Words & Music: Inga Rumpf
Publisher: Oktave Musikverlag

Whenever I'm cying
Whenever I'm moaning
Whenever I'm laughing
I've got it all in my brain but I like that band, I really love it
(studioversion)
You're sitting here and hold my hand and kiss me so and love me
(live version)

You make me feel alright
You make me feel so light
You make me feel so glad
You make me feel so sad
You make me feel alright

I'm floating - through the land of make-belief
I'm floating
Where the trees are blue
And life is true
Where everything's light
And love's alright
All around you see stars
Which are flying past
Floating higher and higher 'til you leave the world
To the sky which is green and all is seen
And now you're on your own – you feel free!
