Words & Music: Inga Rumpf Copyright Control

Hurry up – it's time To fill your heart with joy Hurry up – it's time For every girl and boy

Hurry up – it's time To do what you can do Every minute, every hour Every day belongs to you

Hurry up, hurry up Life is so short Bless every morning And thank the Lord

Hurry up – it's time Be as wise as you can And already tomorrow You'll get it back again

Hurry up – it's time
To make your life shine bright
Hurry up – it's time
To light up your light

Hurry up, hurry up Life is so short Bless every morning And thank the Lord

I know what I'm talking about I'm losing friends Yeah, I can say it loud: Time is precious - take your chance
