

I'm A Believer

If you walk into the dark
Without light you may fall
You need an angel that carries you
You need a soul that will bring you through

We are strong and beautiful
We invent all we need
But our lives would be so in vain
Without his spirit our hearts would drain

Yeah, I'm a believer
I believe he'll lead me right
Yeah, I am so faithful
He's my light inside

If I walk into the dark
Why should I be afraid
There's an angel that will carry me
There's a soul that will stand by me

Yeah, I'm a believer
I believe he'll lead me right
Yeah, I am so faithful
He's my light inside

What should I fear
When I know I'm on his way
Why should I be afraid
He will stand by me

He's my light within
I belong to him
He will lead me right
Yeah, he will lead me through the darkest night
