

ONE MAN BAND

Words & Music: Inga Rumpf

It's long ago when we hung around
We heard songs and sang along
Lived our dreams, made new plans
It had to go on and on

Times have changed in many ways
Now we're hanging around again
Once you were shining like a star
But now you are, you are
Like a one man band
Playing for the memory of your friends

Every tune we know by heart
Kept us together for all time
The whole world laid at our feet
Now there's no hill to climb

Life in the darkness - it takes a while
Before you see the sky again
Then you'll be shining like a star
But now you are, you are
Like a one man band
Playing for the memory of your friends

Now you are, yeah, you are
Like a one man band
Playing for the memory of your friends
